

Universitätsbibliothek Wuppertal

The elusive Pimpernel

Orczy, Emmuska

London, 1908

Verlagswerbung

Nutzungsrichtlinien Das dem PDF-Dokument zugrunde liegende Digitalisat kann unter Beachtung des Lizenz-/Rechtehinweises genutzt werden. Informationen zum Lizenz-/Rechtehinweis finden Sie in der Titelaufnahme unter dem untenstehenden URN.

Bei Nutzung des Digitalisats bitten wir um eine vollständige Quellenangabe, inklusive Nennung der Universitätsbibliothek Wuppertal als Quelle sowie einer Angabe des URN.

urn:nbn:de:hbz:468-1-2820

34, 35 & 36, Paternoster Row,
London, 1908

Messrs. HUTCHINSON & CO.'S
Announcements
For the Autumn, 1908

TO BE ISSUED AT A POPULAR PRICE
A most fascinating work by the greatest and most attractive actress of a generation

ELLEN TERRY

The Story of my Life

In one handsome volume, demy 8vo, cloth gilt, 6s. net

PROFUSELY ILLUSTRATED

This record of Miss Ellen Terry's life in her own words is one of the most charmingly written and absorbingly interesting books that has appeared for many a day. It is not a mere catalogue of theatrical events, but a personal story of Ellen Terry's life, in which she reviews her past experiences and describes the people with whom she has come in contact both on and off the stage. The illustrations in the book have been selected from a large and unique collection of theatrical and other portraits in the possession of Miss Terry, and comprise photographs and drawings of the great actress from her earliest appearance in public to the present day, and portraits of members of her family, and of well-known men and women with whom she has associated.

Among well-known artists whose pictures are reproduced are James McNeil Whistler; G. F. Watts, R.A.; John S. Sargent, R.A.; Solomon J. Solomon, R.A.; The Honble. John Collier; Bernard J. Partridge, etc.

It was originally intended to issue this book in the first instance in two volumes at one guinea, but in view of the immense popularity of our foremost English actress—so clearly demonstrated on the occasion of the recent public presentation to her—the publishers have decided to produce the book in one volume at a price cheap enough to place it within the reach of her hundreds of thousands of admirers.

A Book to possess, not merely to borrow

A limited Edition of 1,000 copies on foolscap 4to
(6½ by 8½) in special binding, and with extra photogravure plates and additional illustrations, 250 copies of which are signed by the Author, 21s. net. Unsigned copies, 16s. net.

Ready September

NORREYS CONNELL

Lord Craven's Queen of Hearts

In demy 8vo, cloth gilt and gilt top, 16s. net.

With Photogravure Plates and other Illustrations

This is the story of William, Earl of Craven, and Elizabeth, Queen of Bohemia, the daughter of the Scots' King, James the First of England. She was born the year that first saw the "Taming of the Shrew," he, the English tailor's son, entered the world between the first and second part of "Don Quixote." She saw her father ascend the English throne, her brother lose it, and her nephew juggled back to it; her lover (for, contented or not, Craven was her lover) lived so long that he saw not only her father on that throne, but yet lingered on the stage when her nephew's son-in-law filled it, and it was clear that her own grandson would follow him; had he survived a few more months he might have hailed the grandson as despot of Hanover.

GEORGE PASTON

Mr. Pope of Twickenham

By the Author of "Sidelights on the Georgian Period," etc.

In 2 vols., demy 8vo, 24s. net

With Photogravures and other Illustrations

In this study of Alexander Pope, George Paston, whose 18th Century Biographies are models of their kind, describes the life of perhaps the most celebrated literary man of his time.

The Most Beautiful Book of the Year

A FINE ART EDITION OF GOETHE'S GREAT CLASSIC

Faust

In one handsome volume, 7 x 10 $\frac{1}{4}$, cloth gilt and gilt top, 15s. net

With 30 full-page coloured plates, reproduced on an uncoated paper from original paintings, and many decorations by WILLY POGANY

These remarkable illustrations are by the clever Hungarian artist, whose work has attracted considerable attention both in England and on the Continent

Mr. Pogany knows his Faust very thoroughly, and has fully entered into the spirit of the work. Realising the immense scope Goethe's drama offers to the imagination, he has painted a series of pictures of rare beauty and originality. These are reproduced by an expensive process on a pure uncoated paper with permanent inks which will retain their brilliant colour for all time, and, unlike other art books printed on coated or highly finished papers, will not fade nor lose their original colouring.

A large-paper Edition, limited to 250 copies, specially bound in vellum and gold, with an additional Coloured Plate, each copy numbered and signed by the artist, £2 2s. net.

F. FRANKFORT MOORE

Eighteenth Century Sketches

By the Author "An Amateur Adventuress," etc., etc.

In demy 8vo, with illustrations, 16s. net

Mr. Frankfort Moore's new book contains some delightful eighteenth-century vignettes—chiefly of literary men and women. Much of the wit and humour buried in letters, memoirs and diaries of the times is reproduced in these sketches with a skilful touch.

THOMAS CARLYLE

The Life of Frederick the Great

Abridged and Edited by EDGAR SANDERSON, M.A., Sometime Scholar of Clare College, Cambridge,

Author of "The History of the World from the Earliest Historical Time,"
"History of the British Empire," "The British Empire in the Nineteenth Century," "Outlines of the World's History," etc.

With an Introduction by ROGER INGPEN.

In crown 8vo, cloth gilt and gilt top, 5s. net

With Portrait.

Carlyle's Life of Frederick the Great has been described by a wag as a "great book," which it certainly is in more ways than one. It is undoubtedly the most remarkable of Carlyle's achievements, and its dimensions alone entitle it to a place among the greatest monuments of literary industry. But for this very reason the book is practically sealed to all save those who enjoy ample leisure.

Mr. Sanderson has accomplished the great, one might almost say gigantic, feat of compressing the five huge royal octavo tomes of Carlyle into a single volume. His chief task has been to clear away the vast forest of extraneous matter that surrounded Frederick—the early history of Germany, contemporary events, and numerous appendices and original documents—and to give us a portrait in Carlyle's own picturesque words of the Soldier-king to whom Germany owes its present power and prosperity, and who bequeathed to his country such a fine example of personal courage and political wisdom.

Sir HARRY JOHNSTON, G.C.M.G., &co.

George Grenfell and the Congo

The Life and Work of a Great Traveller

A History and Description of the CONGO INDEPENDENT STATE AND ADJOINING DISTRICTS OF CONGOLAND, together with some Account of the Native Peoples and their Languages, the Fauna and Flora; and similar Notes on THE CAMEROONS AND THE ISLAND OF FERNANDO PO, the whole Founded on the Diaries and Researches of the late Rev. GEORGE GRENFELL, B.M.S., F.R.G.S., on the Records of the BAPTIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY, and on Additional Information contributed by the AUTHOR, by the Rev. LAWSON FORFEITT, Mr. EMILE TORDAY, and others.

In two large volumes, cloth gilt and gilt top, 30s. net

With 496 Illustrations, 2 Photogravure Plates, and 14 Maps

The late Rev. George Grenfell, who died recently on the Upper Congo, was, after Stanley, the leading explorer of the Congo Basin; he also explored the Cameroons thirty years ago. He was a gold medallist of the Royal Geographical and a member of many other learned societies, which have acknowledged his achievements as an explorer. Sir Harry Johnston is specially qualified to write on the life and work of Mr. Grenfell, whom he met some years ago on the Congo, as he has been a Consul in the regions where the late explorer laboured, besides which he has had much to do, as an official, with the Baptist mission in the Cameroons. The diaries and papers of Mr. Grenfell have been placed in Sir Harry Johnston's hands; he has also been entrusted with all the material that the Missionary Society could obtain from the stores of information of Mr. Grenfell and of his colleagues on the Congo. Sir Harry has therefore been able to produce a comprehensive work on that little-known region. Mr. Grenfell was an expert photographer; of the illustrations in the book at least 250 of them will be from Mr. Grenfell's beautiful pictures, besides which there will be contributions from other sources.

MARY F. SANDARS

Lauzun: Courtier and Adventurer

The Life of a Friend of Louis XIV.

By the Author of "Honoré de Balzac"

In 2 vols., demy 8vo, 24s. net

With Photogravures and other Illustrations

A deeply interesting book, written in a bright and agreeable manner. The Duc de Lauzun was famous at the Court of Louis XIV, and his love affairs with la Grande Mademoiselle has been introduced into more than one book, but the present volume deals with the man's whole life and his amazing fortunes. As the author says, "the little man who only by his own vanity missed marriage with a princess who was the richest heiress of her time, with his courage and glitter, his power of worsting his enemies by repartee and superior cunning, as well as by blows, his Don Juan like proclivities, his knight errantry, has served in part for the hero of many of Dumas' romantic novels."

LIEUT.-COL. ANDREW C. P. HAGGARD, D.S.O.

Louis XVI and Marie Antoinette

By the Author of "The Real Louis XV," etc.

In 2 vols., demy 8vo, 24s. net

With Photogravure Plates and other Illustrations

In the present book Colonel Haggard brings his studies of French Court life to a conclusion and deals with the troublous reign of Louis XVI.

P. F. WILLIAM RYAN

Queen Anne and her Court

In 2 vols., demy 8vo, cloth gilt and gilt top, 24s. net

With 2 Photogravures and 32 other Illustrations

The tragedy of the emotions that made up the life of Anne Stuart and which hurried her to an early grave are depicted in this biography. All the children of James II were born to a heritage of sorrow ; but none suffered as did Anne, and her cross was not the less crushing because one half of its burden was the weight of her own transgressions, whilst the other half was made up of a long series of domestic misfortunes whose bitterness can only be fully realised by those who themselves have wept by the graves of their children.

Political and religious problems must have their place in a biography of Anne. But in a study that would reveal the heart of the woman herself, the personages who touched more or less intimately the circle of her life are more illuminating than political theories or religious tenets. The Princess was what she was because all the belles and the beaux, the soldiers and the statesmen, the parsons and the priests of her day were what they were. If only giants in intellect can rise above the cross of mental vision engendered by environment, then the Princess Anne never had a chance, and censure of her deficiencies must ever melt into pity. She will be seen in these pages a gay and irresponsible maid at the Court of Charles II, a consummate actress at the Court of James II. Anne's marriage was fruitful in every disappointment that could wither the heart of a woman. The history of those long years consecrated to motherhood is a history of tears. But the darkest chapter of every human story has its contrast of light relief. It was so in Anne's relations with her friends and favourites, and this comedy, lost, alas ! upon the Queen, will emerge in these pages.

EDWARD THOMAS

Richard Jefferies: A Biographical Study

By the Author of "The Heart of England," etc.

In demy 8vo, 10s. 6d. net

With Illustrations

Although the readers of Richard Jefferies' books are steadily on the increase, with the exception perhaps of the memoir issued shortly after Jefferies' death, no study of the great naturalist of any importance has appeared. Mr. Edward Thomas is well qualified for the task he has undertaken. He has been a close student of the work of Richard Jefferies for many years, and has, in the course of his researches, obtained some important new information respecting the life of his subject; he also supplies a full critical study of Jefferies' books.

PHILIP W. SERGEANT

The Empress Josephine: Sinner or Martyr

By the Author of "The Last Empress of the French"

In 2 vols, demy 8vo, 24s. net

With Photogravures and other Illustrations

The life of Napoleon's first wife, Josephine, has apparently an inexhaustible interest of its own. In the present sympathetic study, Mr. Sergeant has gathered from the voluminous Napoleonic memoirs which have appeared of late years much new information, and has been enabled to enrich his pages with many particulars that have hitherto not been included in the existing books on the French Empress.

J. FITZGERALD MOLLOY

Victoria Regina : Her Court and Her Subjects

From the Accession to the Death of the Prince Consort

By the Author of "Our Sailor King," etc.

In 2 vols., demy 8vo, cloth gilt, gilt top. 24s. net

With 18 Illustrations, including 2 Photogravure Frontispieces

In this book the author has made an attempt to supply a picturesque narrative of Queen Victoria's reign from her Accession to the death of the Prince Consort. The whole story is one of incalculable value as showing the opinion of our progress formed by foreign visitors during the reign, such as the Czar Nicholas of Russia, Louis Philippe, King William of Prussia, the King of Saxony, Leopold of the Belgians, and the Emperor of the French. The volumes are fully illustrated with portraits.

PHILIP GIBBS

King's Favourite : The Love Story of Robert Carr and Lady Essex

By the Author of "The Romance of George Villiers, First Duke of Buckingham"

In demy 8vo, cloth gilt and gilt top, 16s. net

With Photogravure Plate and other Illustrations

In the reigns of the Stuart kings, when English life was full of romance, there is no more romantic story than the rise and fall of Robert Carr, Earl of Somerset. And in the heart of it there is a passionate drama of love, as full of human interest as any tale told by the great masters of historical romance.

It has never been fully told until now ; yet in the State papers of the nation there are the fullest and most vivid details of a great career which ended in ruin, and of a guilty love which dragged down the noblest names in England.

A story of passion and of cold-blooded murder, it yet has in it the stuff of true tragedy and of historic drama. Not Sir Walter Scott or Alexander Dumas, those wizards of romance, have written a narrative more exciting in its deep human interest than this true tale told vividly by Mr. Phillip Gibbs.

Colonel M. JACSON

The Record of a Regiment of the Line

Being a Regimental History of the 1st Battalion Devonshire Regiment during the Boer War, 1899-1902

With a Preface by Lieut.-General W. Kitchener

In crown 8vo, cloth gilt

Fully Illustrated

The story told as in this book is an every-day account and a record of the work of the men of the 1st Battalion Devonshire Regiment during the South African War. It exemplifies the devotion to duty, the stubbornness in adversity, and the great fighting qualities of the West-country man, which qualities existed in the time of Drake, and which still exist. A repetition of their history of the past, a record of the present, and an example for the generation to come.

Compiled by A. C. R. CARTER

The Year's Art, 1909

Thirtieth Year of Issue

A concise Epitome of all matters relating to the Arts of Painting, Sculpture, Engraving, and Architecture, and to Schools of Design which have occurred during the year 1908, together with information respecting the events of the year 1909

In crown 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d. net

550 Pages of Letterpress, with Full-page Illustrations

"Absolutely indispensable to all who are interested in art. It is, in fact, the artist's Whitaker."—Tribune.

GEORGE P. UPTON

The Standard Concert Guide

A Handbook of the Standard Symphonies, Oratorios, Cantatas, and Symphonic Poems for the Concert Goer

Author of "Musical Memories," "The Standard Operas," "The Standard Light Operas," "Woman in Music, etc.

In small crown 8vo, 5s. net

With many Portraits.

The author has sought to present a compact and handy concert guide to the public through the realm of the symphony, symphonic poem, oratorio, and cantata. The text has been made as untechnical as possible, so as to be intelligible to those unacquainted with the science of music, and the work is offered to the public with the hope that it may prove useful for general reference, and satisfactory as a "Standard Concert Guide." The volume is enriched with portraits of the composers whose works are described in it.

GEORGE P. UPTON

The Standard Operas

A new and much enlarged edition of a work that has run through many earlier editions

In small crown 8vo, 500 pages, 5s. net

With 150 Portrait Illustrations

This work has been prepared for the general public rather than for musicians; technicalities have been avoided as far as possible, the aim being to give lovers of opera a clear understanding of the works they are likely to hear and thus heighten their enjoyment. There is a brief but comprehensive sketch of each of the operas contained in the modern repertory with a notice of the composer, the story of the opera, and the character of the music, its prominent scenes and numbers, and interesting historical information.

JULES LAIR

Louise de la Vallière and the Early Life of Louis XIV

Translated from the French by ETHEL MAYNE

In demy 8vo, cloth gilt and gilt top, 16s. net

With Illustrations

"M. Jules Lair's work, which has been excellently translated by Miss Ethel Mayne, is by no means to be classed with the compilations of the bookmakers, he is differentiated from them by his thoroughness and his scholarship. He tells us in his preface that he has devoted six years to his task, and the statement derives support from his evident familiarity with the obscure and unpublished as well as the obvious sources of information. M. Lair does not merely reproduce his authorities, but recasts and interprets them. He is a psychologist, and he makes his characters live. For him, and consequently for his readers, 'the little La Vallière' is not merely a Royal mistress like another, but a definite, and even a sympathetic human being. When we close the book we understand her and feel very sorry for her. There is a simple sincerity of emotion in her story, and the emotion, no less than the facts, is reflected in M. Lair's admirable narrative."—THE TIMES.

W. H. HUDSON

The Land's End:

A Naturalist's Impressions in West Cornwall

Author of "The Purple Land," "British Birds," "Green Mansions,"
"Hampshire Days," etc.

In demy 8vo, cloth gilt and gilt top, 10s. 6d. net

With many Illustrations by A. I. Collins

The "Daily Mail" says:

"This book on the West of Cornwall should be read by thousands who love their country in all its varied aspects. They will be fascinated with it, and will not be content with reading it only once. Mr. Hudson has an eye for all beautiful things, and a heart to understand something of their meaning. And as we read his beautiful clear English we share his pleasure and interest in the things he has seen and describes so perfectly."

The "Pall Mall Gazette" says:

"The result of the author's observations, not only from the point of view of the natural historian, but as the reflections of a keen student of human nature, will arouse the deepest interest. It is a book which every naturalist will value, not only because of the charm of its descriptions and its literary excellence, but because it deals with a district the natural history of which is not so familiar as that of more populous counties."

HUTCHINSON'S

New 6^s. Novels

Each in crown 8vo, cloth gilt

BARONESS ORCZY

The Illusive Pimpernel

By the Author of "The Scarlet Pimpernel"

This novel contains further exciting incidents in the life of the Scarlet Pimpernel during the French Revolution after the King's death. It will be about the same length as "The Scarlet Pimpernel," and most of the characters in that novel reappear in the new book—especially Chauvelin, the French agent. Some new personages also appear on the scene.

New 6s. Novels

ERNST ZAHN

Golden Threads

Translated by MURIEL R. TROLLOPE

Herr Zahn is one of the deservedly most popular of contemporary German novelists. The present story, with its elemental passions and dramatic interest, has run through many editions in the original, and has been translated into excellent English.

J. E. BUCKROSE

Voices

By the Author of "The Wood End," "The Toll Bar," and "The Wolf"

Judging from the three novels already published of J. E. Buckrose, one has grown accustomed to expect an uncommon story from this author told in vigorous language: fiction which was described by a recent reviewer as not unworthy of Jane Austen. The present novel, "Voices," is a powerful story with everything uncommon about it—the plot, the heroine, and the writer's rare distinction of style.

New 6s. Novels

DOROTHEA CONYERS

Aunt Jane and Uncle James

By the Author of "Three Girls and a Hermit,"
"The Strayings of Sandy," etc.

A new semi-sporting humorous book by the author of the popular novel "The Strayings of Sandy," which is now in its seventh edition and still greatly in demand.

"Mrs. Conyers writes well and brightly, and would carry along even one with no interest in horses. She is philosophically detached in her attitude, and depicts the drawbacks of Ireland very faithfully. Her stories go with a brogue, and a "let," and can be heartily praised."—Daily Mail.

Mrs. BAILLIE SAUNDERS

The Mayoress's Wooing

By the Author of "Saints in Society"

A clever story with an ingenious plot worked out with great dexterity to an unexpected conclusion. The interest of the reader is sustained from the first to the last page.

New 6s. Novels

EDGAR JEPSON

Lady Noggs Intervenes

By the Author of "Lady Noggs, Peeress," etc.

In this novel Mr. Jepson's charming heroine, Lady Noggs, reappears in new adventures. The interest which proved irresistible in Mr. Jepson's previous book is well sustained in the present volume. Lady Noggs is a trifle older, but she has lost none of her high spirits, and, if anything, she has become a more fascinating personality.

LADY TROUBRIDGE

A Marriage of Blackmail

By the Author of "The House of Cards," etc.

Lady Troubridge's story, entitled "A Marriage of Blackmail," like her other novels, is concerned with a study of modern life, the characters of which are depicted with that clever touch which characterises her work.

KATHLYN RHODES

The Will of Allah

By the Author of "Sweet Life," etc.

The scenes are mostly in Egypt, there are many episodes, some convincingly drawn characters, and an unusually strong love interest.

New 6s. Novels

ROBERT HICHENS

A Spirit in Prison

By the Author of "The Garden of Allah," etc.

With Illustrations by CYRUS CUNEO

This is the only new novel of Mr. Hichens that will be published this year. It is a long story of 200,000 words, making a book of 460 pages and shows the popular author at his best. The scenes are in Italy and the studies of the principal characters, including a charming heroine, are amongst the author's most brilliant achievements, while the local colour and atmosphere reflect the subtle cleverness displayed in "The Garden of Allah."

"RITA"

The House called Hurrish

By the Author of "Peg the Rake," "Souls," "The Sinner," etc.

This is a long and important new novel, in which, like "Peg the Rake" and others of her successful books, "Rita" deals with the fortunes of an Irish family.

New 6s. Novels

MABEL BARNES GRUNDY

Hilary on Her Own

By the Author of "The Vacillations of Hazel,"

"Marguerite's Wonderful Year," etc.

This is a charmingly and brightly written story. Hilary, who is tired of her home, the big old house and lovely garden, goes to London to seek her fortune. Her experiences and adventures in earning her living, and her love affairs, are all related in a vivacious style, the book being full of humorous touches. It will undoubtedly please the many readers of the author's earlier books.

EILEEN FITZGERALD

The Heart of a Butterfly

An entertaining story, full of movement, of modern social life, with some lively dialogue and clever character studies, the two leading characters being sisters with widely different views of life, whose love affairs clash.

New 6s. Novels

ROBERT HUGH BENSON

The Conventionalists

By the Author of "The Sentimentalists,"
"Lord of the World," etc.

"The Conventionalists" is in no way a sequel to the "Sentimentalists," although a few of the characters of the earlier book reappear in secondary positions. It is a study of the effect of what is called the "Supernatural" coming suddenly upon a conventional member of a very conventional county family—the effect upon himself and his relations. Although a conversion to Catholicism is one incident in the hero's career, it is in no way a controversial book, as all argument is suppressed; no conclusion is definitely reached, but the reader is left confronted by the very old problem as to which is the higher life, the conventional life of the world and the extremely unconventional and apparently fantastic life of those who are called "Contemplatives."

HENRY HARLAND

The Royal End

By the Author of "The Cardinal's Snuff-Box," "My Lady Paramount," "My Friend Prospero," etc.

"The Royal End" is the last and only remaining unpublished novel of the late Mr. Henry Harland. Fastidious writer that he was, the present story is equal, if not superior, in merit to his best work. The hero and heroine of this tale are of the regular Harland types, while his charming gift of portraying character, his delicate irony, and his finished style, whether it is employed in description or dialogue, are all present in a delightful Italian and New England setting.

New 6s. Novels

COSMO HAMILTON

The Quality of Mercy

By the Author of "Adam's Clay," etc.

This novel is new in its scheme, is sympathetic, and will make a wide appeal to the large fiction-reading public. The principal characters are a robust country parson, a muscular Christian, his wife and daughter and her lover. Country life is depicted, and an interesting question for mothers is raised without in any way impairing a bright and very readable book.

H. C. BAILEY

Colonel Stow

A LONG COMPLETE NOVEL

Author of "The God of Clay," "Springtime," etc.

This is a stirring historical romance, dealing with the struggles of Roundhead and Cavalier. It has what to most readers will be considered the great advantage of being a continuous narrative, and it is written with all the vigour and brilliant style which has placed Mr. Bailey in the front rank of romanticists.

EVELYN EVERETT-GREEN

The Guardianship of Gabrielle

Miss Everett-Green can always be relied on for a wholesome, interesting tale. In the present case she has given one of her full-length stories and introduced some attractive characters, the heroine being exceptionally interesting, but there are other love stories than hers running through the book.

New 6s. Novels

Mrs. BAILLIE REYNOLDS

The Supreme Test

By the Author of "Thalassa," "A Dull Girl's Destiny," etc.

A new novel upon which the author has been at work for some time. It is expected that the book will be as popular as her other well-known story, "The Man Who Won," now in its twenty-fifth thousand. The author's reputation has been growing rapidly, and her work is so good that it justifies the belief that her popularity will largely increase.

Mrs. AENEAS GUNN

We of the Never Never

This vividly realised narrative, by the author of "The Little Black Princess," a book which found great favour in the Colonies, is quite out of the ordinary, and will make a special appeal to those who really know what life is in the "Never Never"—the untrodden country of Australia, away behind the "Back of Beyond." It is a true presentation of life on one of the great cattle runs three hundred miles from a town; and the experiences of the "Little Missus," who joins her husband, sharing his lot, unwelcomed at first by the stockmen, but winning her way through, makes most enjoyable reading, and incidentally some most delightful characters are introduced

New 6s. Novels

F. FRANKFORT MOORE

A New Irish Novel

By the Author of "I Forbid the Banns,"
"The Jessamy Bride," etc.

Mr. Frankfort Moore is at home in Ireland, and this new story gives him the opportunity for the display of his own native humour, and of bringing together a most interesting set of characters and portraying a charming heroine.

EDEN PHILLPOTTS

Three Brothers

By the Author of "The Mother," "The Whirlwind," etc.

In Mr. Eden Phillpotts' new story he once more writes of Devonshire, and draws his characters and life from Dartmoor. Although the setting may be the same, his stories (as in the present case) are always fresh and original, and full of distinction. Many characters are introduced into a very full book, which principally concerns itself with the careers of three brothers and their families. There is incident in plenty, with humour and tragedy, while numerous love affairs are involved.

Recent 6s. Novels

G. B. BURGIN

A Woman's Way

Author of "Fanuela," "The Shutters of Silence," etc.

Mr. G. B. Burgin's new novel is a charming story of London life, wherein little Julian Carruthers Penshurst Cholmondeley St. Aubyn, Earl of Grayse, loves Phyllis Carterette as a child and loses sight of her for many years. There is a mystery about Julian's mother, of which he is kept in ignorance. Julian is tired of his order, and wishes to escape from it. How he does so, and comes back to it again, and learns to face the sad realities of life, the grim truth of his mother's shame and her love for Nick Faryll, is told with a thoroughly characteristic mingling of pathos and humour.

PERCY WHITE

Love and the Poor Suitor:

A Novel of Domestic and Social Life

Author of "The West End," "Mr. Bailey Martin," etc.

A young couple of gentle birth, after struggling vainly against the temptation, decide to take the risks and marry on nothing. There is thus created a moving and interesting comedy in which all the social forces are arrayed against the endurance of their affection. Will their love wither in the stern atmosphere of conflict, or come triumphant out of the storm? This is the drama which the reader is called upon to study.

DOROTHEA CONYERS

Three Girls and a Hermit

4th EDITION

Author of "The Strayings of Sandy," "The Boy, Some Horses and the Girl," "Cloth versus Silk," "The Thorn Bit," etc.

"It makes delightful reading. The hunting field gives scope for much rollicking fun; but the description of scenery through which horses and hunters and huntsmen and huntswomen career in their mad, headlong, breakneck way is vividly and feelingly pictured. Bright in its beginning, tender in its ending, we thank Miss Conyers warmly for an excellent story."—Morning Post.

Recent 6s. Novels

RAFAEL SABATINI

The Shame of Motley

A FINE ROMANCE. 2nd EDITION

Author of "The Trampling of the Lilies," "Love at Arms," etc.

"Mr. Sabatini could not be conventional or commonplace if he tried, and the whole trend of the story is as surprising and as stimulating to a well-seasoned reader of novels as it is to a beginner in the hot, exciting methods of writers of historical romance. There are some magnificent scenes of fighting. Occasionally, too, Mr. Sabatini touches quite poignant depths of emotion."—Standard.

"A charmingly written and fascinating story. It may take rank among the best tales of the imagination of recent times."—Scotsman.

"'The Shame of Motley,' whether you regard it as a thrilling adventure story, or as a vivid picture of mediæval Italy, is a notable book."—Truth.

R. RAMSAY

The Key of the Door

"This is really a delightful first novel. It pulsates with actuality and life. It is peculiarly rich in strong, well-drawn convincing characters."—Standard.

FRANK DANBY

The Heart of a Child

3rd EDITION

The Times says:—"A work of art. Sally is a delightful acquaintance."

The Morning Post says:—"It should be a great success. Sally lives."

The Standard says:—"Sally is delightful. Frank Danby has scored another success."

A New Book by the popular Welsh Novelist

ALLEN RAINE

All in a Month and Other Stories

By the Author of "A Welsh Witch," "Torn Sails," etc.

In cloth gilt, 3s. 6d.

In this new volume by Allen Raine will be found some charming studies of Welsh life and character which are sure of a warm welcome from her numerous readers throughout the world.

ALLEN RAINE

Neither Storehouse nor Barn

3rd Large Edition

In cloth gilt, 6s.

"The very contrast between this exquisite Welsh story and the fashionable novel of the day should secure for it a warm reception. No true taste can fail to appreciate the charms of the story. A work of true literature."—Scotsman.

A RECORD

1,837,500 Copies

OF

Allen Raine's Novels

HAVE BEEN ISSUED

In cloth gilt, 3s. 6d. each.

Queen of the Rushes	164,000	Garthowen	213,000
Hearts of Wales	202,000	A Welsh Witch	241,000
A Welsh Singer	316,000	On the Wings of the Wind	234,000
Torn Sails	246,000	By Berwen Banks	221,500

The above figures do not include the American Sales

Two New 1s. Books

EDWIN MILTON ROYLE and J. O. FAVERSHAM

A White Man

A full-length novel founded upon the popular play acted with great success by Mr. Lewis Waller and his Company at the Lyric Theatre, London.

JEROME K. JEROME.

Tommy and Co.

A GREAT STORY

Each in crown 8vo, cloth, 1s. net

Illustrated Cover

"As invigorating as anything Mr. Jerome has ever done, inimitably told. Will give genuine amusement."—Daily Telegraph.

"Skilfully told; full of quaint things. Interesting, amusing, pleasant; a capital companion."—Times.

"A notable novel. It reveals Mr. Jerome in his most admirable mood, full of keen observation, tender pathos, and lifelike humour. Alive and interesting, and very clever."—St. James's Gazette.

THE POETICAL WORKS OF

Robert Browning

In two volumes, 1209 pages, size 7 × 4½ with photogravure portraits

In various choice leather bindings

LEIGH HUNT'S

The Town

In one volume, 626 pages, size 7 × 4½, with 30 illustrations.

In leather bindings

THOMAS À KEMPIS'S

Of the Imitation of Christ

With a preface by the Rev. George Tyrrell, S.J.

In leather bindings

Hutchinson's Select Novels

UNIFORM EDITION

Each in crown 8vo, handsome cloth gilt, 3s. 6d.

Gold in the Gutter	Charles Garvice
The Rose of Life.. ..	M. E. Braddon
Prisoners	Mary Cholmondeley
Fair Margaret	H. Rider Haggard

Volumes already Published—

1 The Cuckoo in the Nest	Mrs. Oliphant
3 A House in Bloomsbury	Mrs. Oliphant
4 The Vengeance of James Vansittart	Mrs. J. H. Needell
5 The Heritage of Langdale	Mrs. Alexander
8 A Marriage Ceremony	Ada Cambridge
9 Fidellis	Ada Cambridge
10 The Mistress of Quest	Adeline Sergeant
11 Roger Vanbrugh's Wife	Adeline Sergeant
12 A Welsh Singer	Allen Raine
13 The Story of an African Farm	Olive Schreiner
14 Tatterley	Tom Gallon
16 The Idol-Maker	Adeline Sergeant
17 Grif	B. L. Farjeon
18 A Stumbler in Wide Shoes	E. Sutcliffe March
19 Dr. Luttrell's First Patient	Rosa N. Carey
20 Torn Sails	Allen Raine
21 Woman and the Shadow	Arabella Kenealy
22 By Right of Sword	A. W. Marchmont
23 Into the Highways and Hedges	F. F. Montresor
24 At the Cross Roads	F. F. Montresor
25 By Berwen Banks	Allen Raine
26 Garthowen	Allen Raine
27 Mollie's Prince	Rosa N. Carey
28 A Dash for a Throne	A. W. Marchmont
29 Life's Trivial Round	Rosa N. Carey
30 A Double Thread	Ellen Thorneycroft Fowler
31 A Corner of the West	Edith Henrietta Fowler
32 The Minister of State	J. A. Steuart
34 The Farringtons	Ellen Thorneycroft Fowler
35 My Lady Frivol	Rosa N. Carey
36 The Love of Richard Herrick	Arabella Kenealy
37 Babs the Impossible	Sarah Grand
38 In High Places	M. E. Braddon
39 A Welsh Witch	Allen Raine
40 Paul Kelter	Jerome K. Jerome
41 The Yellow Van	Richard Whiting
42 Place and Power	Ellen Thorneycroft Fowler
44 On the Wings of the Wind	Allen Raine
45 Love Decides	Charles Garvice
47 Hearts of Wales	Allen Raine
48 Linked by Fate	Charles Garvice
49 In the Name of a Woman	A. W. Marchmont
60 A Lost Eden	M. E. Braddon
61 The Rose of Life	M. E. Braddon
52 The Man who Won... ..	Mrs. Baillie-Reynolds
53 Love the Tyrant	Charles Garvice
54 Queen of the Rushes	Allen Raine
55 Thalassa... ..	Mrs. Baillie-Reynolds
57 Kate of Kate Hall	Ellen Thorneycroft Fowler and A. L. Felkin
58 A Quaker Wooling	Mrs. Fred Reynolds
59 A Girl of Spirit	Charles Garvice
60 Where Love Leads... ..	Charles Garvice
61 A Dull Girl's Destiny	Mrs. Baillie-Reynolds

Library of Standard Biographies

Each with frontispiece portrait, newly edited with notes, chronological table and index

320—540 pp. in foolscap 8vo., cloth gilt, 1s. net per volume
Limp leather, richly gilt and gilt top, 2s. net per volume

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "Messrs. Hutchinson's 'Library of Standard Biographies' is the cheapest and best venture at popularising good biographies that has yet been attempted. The publishers, printers and binders are all to be congratulated on an excellent enterprise."

The Memoirs of Napoleon Bonaparte
From the French of F. de Bourrienne
Abridged and Edited by Edgar Sanderson

The Life of John Wesley
By Robert Southey
Abridged and Edited by Arthur Reynolds

The Life of Oliver Goldsmith
By John Forster
Abridged and Edited by Roger Ingpen

The Life of Nelson
By Robert Southey
Edited by A. D. Power

The Life of Robert Burns
By John Gibson Lockhart
Abridged and Edited by J. M. Sloan

The Life of Queen Elizabeth
By Agnes Strickland.
Abridged and Edited by I. A. Taylor

The Life of Sir Walter Scott
By John Gibson Lockhart
Abridged and Edited by J. M. Sloan

The Life of Wellington
By W. H. Maxwell
Abridged and Edited by Rev. L. T. Dodd

The Autobiography of Benjamin Franklin
To which is added Jared Sparks's continuation. Edited by Edgar Sanderson.

The Life of Thomas Arnold, D.D.
By Arthur Penrhyn Stanley.
Abridged and Edited by Arthur Reynolds

The Early Life of Goethe
Books I.—IX. of the Autobiography
Edited by W. von Knoblauch

The Life of Oliver Cromwell
By Thomas Carlyle
Abridged and Edited by Edgar Sanderson

The Life of Samuel Johnson
By James Boswell
Abridged and Edited by Roger Ingpen

Memoirs of Benvenuto Cellini
Written by himself, and translated by Thomas Roscoe.

Memoirs of Marie Antoinette
By Madame Campan.
With biographical notice of Madame Campan by F. Barrière

"Considering the qualities of the paper, the printing, and the binding, the claim that this is the best value ever offered to the public is fully maintained."—Truth.

The "Classic Novels"

With Illustrations by George Cruikshank, "Phiz," etc.

In cloth gilt, 1s. 6d. net per volume. In limp leather, gilt and gilt top, 2s. 6d. net.

By HENRY FIELDING

The History of Tom Jones. 2 vols.
The Adventures of Joseph Andrews. 1 vol.

The History of Amelia. 2 vols.
Mr. Jonathan Wild, and A Journey from this World to the Next. 1 vol.

By TOBIAS SMOLLETT

The Adventures of Roderick Random. 1 vol.
The Adventures of Peregrine Pickle. 2 vols.

The Adventures of Ferdinand Count Fathom. 1 vol.

The Expedition of Humphry Clinker. 1 vol.

Sir Launcelot Greaves, and the Adventures of an Atom. 1 vol.

The Novels of LAURENCE STERNE complete in One Volume
"Tristram Shandy" and "A Sentimental Journey"

With Illustrations by George Cruikshank
Both unabridged and comprising together 762 pages

"The last word in the matter of cheapness."—British Weekly.

Hutchinson's Popular Classics

Each volume cloth gilt, size 7 × 4½, with designed title page and frontispieces on art paper, some with numerous illustrations, 10d. net.

In full lambskin leather, richly gilt and gilt top, 1s. 6d. net.

- 1 Darwin's Origin of Species. With diagram and portrait, and with note by J. W. Mathews, B.A., summarising the development of the Darwinian Theory since 1859, and also glossary. 488 pages.
- 2 Brete Harte's Tales of the Argonauts and Verse. 423 pages.
- 3 Lytton's Last Days of Pompeii. 487 pages.
- 4 Waterton's Wanderings in South America. With sketch map, notes, and biographical data by W. A. Harding, F.Z.S., and with portrait and illustrations. 259 pages.
- 5 Leigh Hunt's The Town. With 30 illustrations. 626 pages.
- 6 Robert Browning's Poems. Vol. I, 574 pages. With Portrait.
- 7 Robert Browning's Poems. Vol. II, 635 pages. With Portrait.
- 8 An Anthology of Humorous Verse. Edited by Theodore A. Cook, including many copyright poems. 343 pages.
- 9 Keble's Christian Year. With Illustrations.
- 10 Sir W. Laird Clowes's Four Modern Naval Campaigns. With 16 Maps and Plans.
- 11 The Satires and Epistles of Horace. In Latin and English. The English Version by Philip Francis. The Latin text based on that of Müller's is edited by Mr. W. H. D. Rouse, formerly fellow of Christ's College, Cambridge, who has also added an index of names.
- 12 Charles Dickens's Christmas Books.
- 13 Hamilton's Memoirs of the Count de Grammont.
- 14 Sheridan's Complete Plays.
- 15 Goldsmith's Vicar of Wakefield and } In one
Addison and Steele's Sir Roger de Coverley. } volume.
- 16 Goethe's Faust (Anster's Translation).
- 17 The Poems of Richard Lovelace.
- 18 Doran's Monarchs Retired from Business. Vol. I.
- 19 Doran's Monarchs Retired from Business. Vol. II.
- 20 Thomas à Kempis's Of the Imitation of Christ. With a Preface by the Rev. George Tyrrell, S.J.
- 21 Thackeray's Henry Esmond.
- 22 Delitzsch's Jewish Artisan Life in the Time of Christ. The translation made expressly for this edition.
- 23 Charles Dickens's Pickwick Papers. Vol. I.
- 24 Charles Dickens's Pickwick Papers. Vol. II.
- 25 The Odes of Horace. In Latin and English. The English Version by Philip Francis. The Latin text based on that of Müller's. Edited by Mr. W. H. D. Rouse, formerly Fellow of Christ's College, Cambridge, who has added an index of names.
- 26 Oliver Wendell Holmes's Autocrat of the Breakfast Table.
- 27 Miss Mitford's Tales of Our Village. (First Series).
- 28 Michael Faraday's Chemical History of a Candle. With Illus.
- 29 Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress.
- 30 Charles Dickens's Tale of Two Cities and } In one
Wilkie Collins's A Rogue's Life. } volume.
- 31 Burney's History of the Buccaneers of America.

HUTCHINSON'S 6^D. NOVELS

A Series of Copyright Novels

CLEARLY AND WELL PRINTED FROM
NEW TYPE ON GOOD PAPER

New Volumes for 1908

153	Kitty the Rag	" Rita "
154	The Artful Miss Dill	P. Frankfort Moore
155	Kyra's Fate	Charles Garvice
156	A Victory Won	Annie S. Swan
157	Adam's Clay	Cosmo Hamilton
158	Thalassa	Mrs. Baillie-Reynolds
159	Whosoever Loveth	William Le Queux
160	The Cruise of the Make-Believes	Tom Gallon
161	The Three Essentials	Dorothea Gerard
162	Prisoners	Mary Cholmondeley
163	Austin Friars	Mrs. J. H. Riddell
164	Clytie	Joseph Hatton
165	The Way of the Spirit	H. Rider Haggard
166	The Thorn Bit	Dorothea Conyers
167	A Lady of the Regency	Mrs. Stepney Rawson
168	Nell of Shorne Mills	Charles Garvice
169	Miser Farebrother	B. L. Farjeon
170	The Web of the Spider	H. B. Marriott Watson
171	Gerald Estcourt	Florence Marryat
172	In Subjection	Ellen Thorneycroft Fowler
173	Love for an Hour is Love for Ever	Amelia Barr
174	Married in Haste	Evelyn Everett-Green
175	Lottie Lonsdale	Emma Jane Worboise
176	The Man Stealers	M. P. Shiel
177	The Trampling of the Lilies	Rafael Sabatini
178	Queer Lady Judas	" Rita "
179	A Son of Empire	Morley Roberts
180	The Adventures of Police-Constable Vane, M.A.	Alice and Claude Askew
181	Love Rules the Camp	Lieut.-Col. Andrew C. P. Haggard
182	The Heart of the Dancer	Percy White
183	The Marriage Lease	P. Frankfort Moore
184	Olivia and Others	Charles Garvice
185	The Story of a Passion	Charles Garvice
186	The Stumbling Block	Justus Miles Forman
187	A Secret Inheritance	B. L. Farjeon
ALSO
152	Marie Corelli: The Writer and the Woman	T. F. G. Coates and R. Warren Bell

Recent Natural History Books

Each in richly gilt cloth (7½ by 5), rounded corners, 5s. net

A second large edition has been immediately required of
Mr. Finn's handy book for lovers of Bird Life

FRANK FINN, B.A., F.Z.S., etc.

Late Deputy Superintendent, Indian Museum, Calcutta

Birds of the Countryside

Author of "Fancy Pheasants," "Fancy Water Fowl," "Garden and Aviary Birds of India," "The Birds of Calcutta," etc.

With 12 Coloured Plates,

118 Illustrations from Photographs printed on Art Paper and numerous Outline Drawings

By the same Author

Pets and How to Keep Them

With a large number of Illustrations from Photographs and 12 Coloured Plates

It contains short and popularly written accounts of the various animals commonly kept as pets, together with practical directions for their treatment, and includes domestic animals, such as canaries and guinea-pigs, and such wild species, whether British or foreign, as are commonly to be met with in captivity.

Recent Natural History Books

Uniform with "Birds of the Countryside"

F. EDWARD HULME, F.L.S., F.S.A., etc.

Wild Fruits of the Countryside

Author of "Familiar Wild Flowers," "Butterflies and Moths of the Countryside," etc., etc.

In cloth, richly gilt (7½ by 5), rounded corners, 5s. net

With 36 Coloured Plates by the Author, and 25 Illustrations from Photographs on Art Paper

A very useful and interesting little book descriptive of the wild fruits that one finds in the hedges and woods of the countryside.

FRANK FINN, B.A., F.Z.S., etc.

The World's Birds

A simple and popular classification of the birds of the World

Author of "Birds of the Countryside," etc.

In crown 8vo, cloth gilt and gilt top, 5s. net

With 55 Illustrations from Photographs and numerous Drawings

In this work will be found set forth a classification of all existing birds in their natural families, and information of practical and scientific interest concerning these given in a concise form.

A. C. Fowler, Printer, 6, Tenter St., Moorfields, E.C.