Tokyo, Nov[ember] 5. 1895.

Dr. Hans Vaihinger, Dear Professor; –

Your favor of Sept[ember] 16th¹ was duly received and I thank You for Your invitation So Kindly Extended to me to contribute for the Kantian-study which You are intending to publish soon.² I shall be happy to send my humble share^a occasionally^b though I can promise You nothing definite at present | on account of various duties on hand.

You also requested to send a list of names, which will show You those who are interested in the study of Kant here in Japan. I know no one who will be a Contributor for Your Journal but if Such Persons are found, I shall be happy to send Your message to them &^c to write You about | them & their addresses.

I hope Your Undertaking will prove to be very Successful^d in Stimulating the study of Kant All over the world.

Prof. Kanai³ was very glad to receive Your greetings & asked me to send his best wishes to You.
Very sincerely Yours

R. Nakashima

(Professor in the Imperial University)
